Do I Kneel or Do I Bow?

What You Need to Know When Attending Religious Occasion

To be invited into someone's personal religious world is a special honour – but it raises many questions.

How should I respond appropriately?

What are the do's, don'ts and taboos?

What should I wear? What should I not wear?

Should I stand back or join in? Bring a gift? If so, what?

This straightforward and accessible guide will answer these questions, putting you at ease to enjoy the occasion with confidence and get the most out of the experience.

This guide also provides an introduction to the major faiths – Western Christianity (Catholic and Protestant), Orthodox Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Sikhism, and Buddhism – and describes and explains the ceremonies in each that you may be invited to attend. It offers sensible advice on what to expect and how to behave, so that you do not inadvertently give offence or cause embarrassment to yourself or your hosts. Each chapter covers the religion's historical background, core principles and beliefs, major festivals, regular forms of worship, and special family celebrations, and explains many unfamiliar terms and phrases.

The Torah

A classic early 20th century translation by the Jewish Publication Society is graced by reproductions of ancient frescoes, medieval illuminated manuscripts, and paintings by contemporary artists.

Bound in blue cloth with illuminated front cover, bears all the hallmarks of a classic work. This edition brings together one of the most beautiful renderings of the Hebrew Bible in the English language with a wealth of Jewish art and imagery.

Seventy-four ancient colour illustrations using archive material from many major collections & museums enhance the epic journey through time of a unique people. The text selected is the classic 1917 Jewish Publication Society translation which brings alive the history of the Jewish people in a classical way. In addition to the contents a synoptic contents has been added to the beginning of each book of the Torah to help the reader locate the better known events and their themes.

This edition would grace any home or make an ideal present for any rite of passage. An introduction by Rabbi Mariner sets the tone of this magnificent yet perfect sized edition of the best selling book in the world.

RABBI RODNEY MARINER Retired after 29 years of service, Rodney Mariner is the longest serving spiritual leader in London's Belsize Square synagogue's history. A native of Melbourne, Australia he is now Belsize Square's emeritus minister.
