THE SHED THAT FED A MILLION CHILDREN
THE MARY'S MEALS STORY

For Edward, this was the extent of his ambition. These few words set Magnus MacFarlane-Barrow on a journey around the world that he could never have imagined. Mary's Meals, the organisation Magnus founded, now feeds more than one million chronically hungry children every school day, all from a shed in the Scottish Highlands. The vision of Mary's Meals is that every child in this world should be able to receive at least one good meal every day. That is entirely possible in this world of plenty, and the story of Mary's Meals could hold the key to eradicating child hunger altogether.

HEALING OURSELVES AND OUR WORLD

All of us have at times needed both to forgive and be forgiven. But the path to forgiveness is not easy, and the process unclear. How do we let go of resentment when we have been harmed, at times irreparably? How do we forgive and still pursue justice? How do we heal our hearts, and move on? How do we forgive ourselves for the harm we have caused others? Drawing on his memories of reconciliation in post apartheid South Africa, Archbishop Tutu has identified four concrete steps to forgiveness through which we must all pass if we are to reach our destination.
